The Immaculate Conception Medal

Established in 2014 by Bishop William Murphy, the Immaculate Conception Medal is awarded annually to a senior priest. The honor is in recognition of the special qualities of fidelity and commitment to a lifetime of dedicated priestly service. The inaugural Immaculate Conception Medal was presented to Monsignor Thomas J. Colgan, Ordination Class of 1949. Immaculate Conception Medal recipients include

Rev. Msgr. Donald McE. Beckmann

Rev. Msgr. James M. McNamara

Rev. Msgr. John A. Alesandro

Rev. Msgr. Charles R. Fink

Rev. Msgr. Patrick Whitney

The Most Reverend Emil A. Wcela

The Most Reverend Robert J. Brennan

Seminary History

Although part of the Diocese of Rockville Centre, The Seminary's history begins with the Diocese of Brooklyn. In 1853 Pope Pius IX separated geographical Long Island from the guidance of the Bishop of New York and established the whole of the Island as the Diocese of Brooklyn.

To accommodate the growing Diocese and the number of men seeking to become priests, Bishop Thomas E. Molloy, third bishop of Brooklyn, purchased 200 acres in the Village of Lloyd Harbor. The new Seminary formally opened on September 28, 1930. Funding for the construction was made possible by the support of generous parishioners from the Brooklyn Bridge to Montauk Point. The cost of the building totaled $2,645,000 – the total sum collected was $2,660,000!

Because of tremendous growth, Long Island was divided into two Dioceses in 1957. The counties of Nassau and Suffolk were formed into the Diocese of Rockville Centre, leaving Kings and Queens counties as the Diocese of Brooklyn. Located within the boundaries of the newly created Diocese, the Seminary came under the jurisdiction of the Bishop of Rockville Centre. Men from the Diocese of Brooklyn continued to study for the priesthood at Huntington with those from the Diocese of Rockville Centre.

September 2012 marked a singularly significant chapter in the history of the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception. The Dioceses of Brooklyn and Rockville Centre and the Archdiocese of New York formed the St. Charles Borromeo Inter-Diocesan Partnership in Spiritual and Theological Formation for Clergy, Religious and Laity. Candidates for priesthood from all three Dioceses began participation in a single program of priestly formation at St. Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers.

Celebrating ninety-three years since its opening in 1930, the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception continues to be an active, vibrant center of formation and evangelization. The Sacred Heart Institute, created by the St. Charles Borromeo Partnership and supported by the three dioceses, offers retreats and ongoing programs of theological and spiritual enrichment for priests and deacons. The formation program for candidates for the Permanent Diaconate of the Diocese of Rockville Centre is based here. Programs sponsored by the Friends of the Seminary during the year provide additional opportunities for spiritual enrichment.

Located in Huntington, about forty miles from New York City, the Seminary stands on more than 200 acres of hilly land overlooking Cold Spring Harbor, Lloyd Harbor and Oyster Bay. The building is constructed in Spanish Romanesque style with a Byzantine tower. Each guest room has its own private bath. Many religious and lay groups have discovered the Retreat & Conference Center at the Seminary to be the ideal location for their gatherings. The unique beauty and tranquility of the chapels, facilities and grounds provide the perfect setting for retreats, days of recollection, parish staff meetings, workshops, conferences, picnics, etc. The magnificent Rose Garden, created and maintained by volunteers, offers an oasis of peace and solitude for all. Come visit us - you will be warmly welcomed!

Dear Msgr. Caldwell, Frank

Congratulations upon being honored by the Seminary as an exemplary and model priest. I rejoice to see such a good man and holy priest honored in this way and I feel a sense of personal gratitude for the many ways in which you have personally inspired and encouraged me.

I truly regret that obligations here in Providence prevent my attendance of the event at the Seminary. I will miss the chance to catch up and to celebrate with you. Please know that my prayers are with you, and with the newly ordained priests.

Fraternally yours in Christ,

Richard G. Henning

Honoree

Msgr. Francis J. Caldwell is the oldest of ten children born to the late Emilie Joan and Frank Caldwell from St. Mary's Parish, Manhasset. He earned a Master of Divinity Degree from the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception and was ordained in 1981. He later earned a Master's in Social Work from Adelphi University.

During the forty-two years of his priesthood, Monsignor has served at just three parishes—St. Martha, Uniondale, for sixteen years (as Associate and then Pastor); St. Agnes Cathedral for nineteen years (as Vice Chancellor/Secretary to the Bishop for nine years; then Director of Clergy Personnel/Vicar for Clergy for ten years); and, for the past seven years as Pastor of The Curé of Ars, Merrick. In addition to parish ministry, he has also served on the boards of Molloy College, St. Francis Hospital, Mercy Hospital, Catholic Charities. Over the years he has been instrumental in fostering the vocations of many young men and serving as mentor during their formation and early priesthood.

Newly Ordained

Growing up in the Parish of the Good Shepherd in Holbrook, Fr. Steven McClernon attended Sachem North H.S., Suffolk Community College and St. Joseph's College. He began his teaching career in the Connetquot School District and at the Eastern Suffolk BOCES. After much discernment and under the guidance of Msgr. Gerard Ringenback, his pastor, Steve began his formation at the Cathedral Seminary House of Formation in Douglaston, and completed his studies at St. Joseph's Seminary in Dunwoodie. During his Seminary years, he gained pastoral experience serving in several Diocesan parishes, especially St. Martha's under Msgr. Frank Caldwell who was the pastor at that time. Fr. Steven was ordained on June 10, 2023 and is currently assigned to Beach Catholic in Long Beach.

Fr. Jinwoo Michael Nam, M.Id., is one of three children born to devout parents in South Korea. He first encountered the Idente Missionaries as a college student in the Philippines. At a local Idente parish, he came under the guidance of Fr. Felipe Rufes Vasquez, M.Id., who was a great source of encouragement during his discernment. He professed vows with the Missionaries in New York in 2015, studied philosophy at St. John's University, and enrolled in the formation program at St. Joseph's Seminary, Dunwoodie, in 2018. He was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Rockville Centre on June 10, 2023. Assigned to Our Lady of Loretto in Hempstead, he is again working with Fr. Rufus Vasquez, the pastor.

A native of South India, Fr. Ditto Subin Wilson, M.Id., first encountered the Idente Missionaries of Christ when they spoke to high school students in his home parish. After completing his high school studies, he expressed his desire to become an Idente Missionary. He professed first vows in Kerala, India three years prior to coming to New York and pursuing philosophy classes at St. John's University and then enrolling for priestly formation at St. Joseph's Seminary in Dunwoodie. Fr. Wilson professed his final vows as an Idente Missionary in 2021 and was ordained for the Diocese of Rockville Centre on June 10, 2023. He is assigned to the parish of St. Luke in Brentwood.

Dear Friends,

Thank you for participating in this year's Annual Te Deum Event! This welcome letter (in lieu of extended remarks) is to thank you individually for taking the time to come, and to acknowledge the various groups that I have been privileged to know through the years. So, many thanks and welcome to:

Bishop Barres, Bishop Murphy, Bishop Andrzej, Bishop Coyle, priest friends, through the years, and deacons;

Bishop Robert Brennan, who I was privileged to work with for many years and last year's Te Deum honoree; and to the Curia of the Diocese of Brooklyn for coming all the way From the mother diocese;

Bishop William Koenig, Bishop of Wilmington, who traveled the longest to be here tonight, a very great friend through the years (49+ years) and across the miles, and for his welcoming address;

Monsignor Steven Camp, Pastor of St. Patrick's in Huntington and Rectory of Immaculate Conception Seminary for his friendship and his invitation for this honor this evening;

Fellow honorees Father Michael Nam, Father Subin Wilson, and, especially, Father Steven McClernon, the Youth Minister Emeritus of Curé of Ars;

Brother Kenneth Hoagland, S.M., Father Thomas Cardone, S.M., the Marianist Community at Kellenberg and to St. Martin De Porres Marianist School. The establishment of St. Martin's in 2004 is the most enduring aspect of 42 years of priesthood;

Dr. & Mrs. Jim Lentini, President of Molloy University, Mrs. Catherine & Deacon Muscente and the Molloy delegation;

Mrs. Peggy Maher, Catholic Health, Director of Development and board members of St. Francis and Mercy Hospitals;

Mr. Michael Smith, CEO of Catholic Charities, Laura Cassell, former CEO, Tom Alexanderson, Board Chair, Paul Englehart, and members of the Charities Board;

Members of the Order of Malta, especially His Excellency. Francis Joseph McCarthy, of the Sovereign Council;

The many "Friends of Mercy," along with co-chaplain Rabbi Barry dov Schwartz, and his wife, Sonia;

Most especially, to dear friends and parishioners of St. Martha's, St. Agnes, and Curé of Ars parishes;

And to my beloved nine siblings, Mary, Gerry, Eileen, Christopher, Kenneth, Peter, Joseph, Patrick & Toby, their spouses and many nieces and nephews who are here tonight!

Although the Seminary is no longer a house of formation, it is a thriving retreat and conference center and a great venue of evangelization promoting the proclamation of the Gospel for many age groups and from all over the metropolitan region. Thank you for your presence, support and friendship – through the years!

Fr. Frank

*Congratulations
