The Franciscan Brothers of Brooklyn

The Franciscan Brothers of Brooklyn, formally known as the Congregation of the Religious Brothers of the Third Order Regular of St. Francis, were founded in 1858 when Bishop John Loughlin, first Bishop of the Diocese of Brooklyn, issued an invitation to the Brothers to operate schools for the sons of Irish immigrants in his diocese. Under the leadership of Brother John McMahon, O.S.F., and Brother Vincent Hayes, O.S.F., a group of six Brothers, sent from the monastery in Roundstone, County Galway, soon arrived and opened St. Francis Monastery on Butler Street and St. Francis Academy, the first Catholic school in Brooklyn. The monastery served as their base of operations as they spread out over the City of Brooklyn in their ministry of education. Thus began the history of the Franciscan Brothers of Brooklyn.

The Brothers have been actively involved in the education of boys and young men, serving the Diocese of Brooklyn and later the Diocese of Rockville Centre. The Brothers staffed many parish elementary schools in Brooklyn. Established in 1858, St. Francis Academy is now known as St. Francis Prep - the largest private Catholic secondary school in the United States.

On Long Island the Brothers continued their mission of education by establishing St. Anthony's High School as a day school in Smithtown in 1933. This was in addition to Camp Alvernia in Centerport and the novitiate properties in Smithtown, Wyandanch, and, later, Oyster Bay. The Brothers began their elementary school work in the Diocese of Rockville Centre at St. Joseph's in Babylon and Notre Dame in New Hyde Park. In 1984 St. Anthony's High School relocated to South Huntington and, for the first time in their history of secondary school education, admitted young women to the student body. St. Anthony's continues to be a vibrant presence - academically, culturally and athletically - on Long Island.

The Brothers founded Camp Alvernia in Centerport, New York, in 1888, which was the first and remains the oldest Catholic summer camp in continuous operation in the country. They now also operate several facilities for spiritual retreats on the grounds, including Mount Alvernia Retreat Center. An interesting sidenote, in the early 1920s, the camp was the site of an anti-Catholic demonstration by the Ku Klux Klan, which conducted a cross burning on its grounds.

Today, the Brothers continue to minister at St. Francis College in Brooklyn, the parish of Our Lady of Angels in Brooklyn (their headquarters), St. Francis Preparatory School in Fresh Meadows, Camp Alvernia and Our Lady Queen of Martyrs in Centerport, St. Patrick's in Bay Shore, and St. Anthony's High School in South Huntington. The Brothers are the spiritual moderators for many Third Order Secular Franciscan groups.

On the occasion of their 165th anniversary, the Seminary is honored to celebrate the Franciscan Brothers of Brooklyn as they continue their mission of education and service to the people of the Dioceses of Brooklyn and Rockville Centre.

Peggy and Bobby York

Born to Peg and Lewis Ranieri, Peggy grew up in Merrick, New York and attended Cure of Ars Parish. She has been a product of Catholic education since Nursery school. She began at Cure of Ars school, then St. Elizabeth Ann Seton for the remaining elementary school years. Peggy graduated from Kellenberg Memorial High School in 2003 and received a degree in Secondary Math Education from Long Island University - CW Post. She began her call to the teaching vocation at Kellenberg in 2006 as a math teacher and taught both the freshman and junior divisions in Algebra I and II respectively. After her first year, she was asked to teach Freshman Scripture, where she has been for the past 15 years. Most recently, Peggy serves as an assistant administrator within the ARK (Apostolic Response at Kellenberg), which is Kellenberg's Campus Ministry. In her role there, she assists in coordinating various religious programs for the students and their families including the Mother/Daughter Evening and Mother/Son Evening. Peggy also runs the PREP program which sends almost 300 students out to 12 different parishes across Long Island to teach Religious Education. Peggy also moderates Kellenberg's Business and Finance Club and works as a liaison with Molloy University where Kellenberg students can achieve Bloomberg Certification as well as enrolling in different college level business courses. Peggy is a board member of the Tomorrow's Hope Foundation and serves as a member of their Executive Council. The Tomorrow's Hope Foundation is an organization which provides tuition assistance to families in the Diocese of Rockville Centre who seek a Catholic education but cannot afford one. She is a member of the St. Joseph Pastoral Council and assists with the St. Joseph School Family Association coordinating the school lunch program and serving as a class mom.

The son of Patricia and Robert York, Bobby grew up in West Hempstead and attended St. Thomas the Apostle Parish. Bobby was formed in the faith through his family and the priests and Religious Education program at St. Thomas. He graduated from Kellenberg Memorial High School in 2001 where he was first introduced to Marianist Catholic education. Bobby worked in various private sector occupations before answering the vocation to teaching. He was hired at Kellenberg in 2006 and first served as a track and field coach which led to him being hired to teach Computer education. This evolved into teaching History and Religion at the freshman and sophomore levels respectively. His role as an educator grew from the classroom into the guidance department, serving as divisional coordinator for a few years. In 2018, Bobby was asked by the Marianist Community to join the Administrative Staff of Kellenberg Memorial High School as an Assistant Principal, which he has proudly served since. During the 2022-2023 school year Bobby served as a Co-Principal at St. Martin de Porres Marianist School in Uniondale which educates students from Pre-K through eighth grade. Moving forward, Bobby will serve in an administrative capacity at both Kellenberg and St. Martin's continuing to promote the mission and benefit of a Catholic education taught in the Marianist Tradition. Bobby was a St. Joseph School board member for the past six years, serving as board president for his final three years. Bobby is also a current member of the Seminary of the Immaculate Conception Golf Outing Committee.

Peggy and Bobby are the proud parents of Anthony who is a rising fifth grade student at St. Joseph School. They believe that giving Anthony a Catholic education is the greatest gift they can give to him. The York Family is also the proud owner of their puggle, Harley Quinn, who brings much love and snuggles to the family.

"God has blessed us with so much and we owe our success and faith development to the Marianist Community and the great work done by the priests in our diocese. These guardians of the faith have helped us to know God and to truly love him and serve him by our work in education. We believe we are in the business of 'Making Saints' each day as we interact with our students in and out of the classroom." – Bobby York

It is for their mission quoted above that we honor both Peggy and Bobby York for their dedication to and support of Catholic education in general and in the Marianist Tradition in particular!
